

Going quackers at Sonya Lodge Residential Care Home

You have all heard of dog racing, horse racing and even snail racing; well here at Sonya Lodge Care Home, we've been having some fun with duck racing!

Our Recreation and Well-Being Champion Jo made us a brilliant racecourse from our trestle table and our lovely residents took turns to roll the dice and make their moves – great fun!