

Home grown produce at Sonya Lodge Residential Care Home

Our staff and residents here at Sonya Lodge Residential Care Home are very proud of our allotment this year; it's been a great success!

Our residents planted seeds of radish, beetroot, spring onions, new potatoes, tomato and courgettes. As you can see from the photos, we've harvested a lovely crop of veggies so far!